

About the FWJC

The Farmingdale Jewish Center (FJC) traces its roots back to 1926 when the First Hebrew Congregation of Farmingdale was founded. In 1944, the name was changed and the first building that we could call our own was dedicated in 1948.

In 1951, the Wantagh Jewish Center (WJC) was founded and has continuously served its community.

In 2007, both the FJC and WJC have combined resources to form the FWJC. This makes us one of the oldest continuous congregations on Long Island with over 400 families.

Serving the needs of all Jewish families in the mid, south eastern Nassau and western Suffolk County areas. FWJC offers a variety of programs and activities for all age groups.

Whether you have children who desire a Jewish education, a Bar or Bat-Mitzvah, a wedding or other event, FWJC can provide for you.

We have an active Men's Club, Sisterhood and Chavurah Club, as well as Book and Yiddish Clubs.

Of course, we have daily services.

With all this and more join us at the FWJC!
